CHILDHOOD CANCER RESEARCH AND ADVOCACY, INC

At Elevate, we believe we should 'let kids be kids', which means that they shouldn't have to worry about the hassles of adult life and "beating their own cancer". Instead, we believe that kids should be able to enjoy their childhood and all the innocence that comes with that. Elevate kids is a fundraising and awareness initiative that supports the mission of Elevate Childhood Cancer Research and Advocacy.
